Please Notice:
This record is a compilation of pedigrees from various sources, which are given at the bottom of each chart. The earlier the dates or periods of time, the greater the chance of inaccuracies and the more chance that tradition plays a part. An example is the Weaver line where no dates or places are given. If a pedigree has been found that seems to be doubtful in any way, a question mark has been placed by the names in question. Our connection with the Winterhay line is one of these. Original source material is seldom available and we have had to rely on printed records that others have compiled and printed. We will be glad to correct any proven errors. Hoping that this record will be of interest and of help to some of you, I am Sincerely,
Dorothy D. Hall
