	11	NOTE: There is still some question as to whether there was both a Richard and a Robert in this family, or if they were one and the same person.
	12	Also there is some question whether this couple actually had a son Simon. In the above father's will there is mention of three sons and four daughters only. Robert and Simon are not mentioned. In Eng. AM, it is claimed they had have a son Simon who married Eleanor Boughton.
	13	In view of the temple work accomplished based on the various assumptions concerning this matter, this compilation as it now stands should be left unaltered until more conclusive and reliable evidence can be found
